1. If you are like a rabbit in the headlights, you __________.
   a) enjoy being the centre of attention
   b) are too scared to speak or move
   c) are naturally strong at sports
   d) have very large ears

2. What do you call a baby rabbit in English?
   a) A kit
   b) A kitten
   c) A pup
   d) A puppy

3. Rabbits that are kept as pets often live in a structure called a ________.
   a) hatch
   b) box
   c) hutch
   d) cart

4. If you 'pulled a rabbit from a hat', what have you done?
   a) You have persuaded someone to do a worthwhile task.
   b) You have achieved or produced something difficult and unexpected.
   c) You have removed an obstacle that was holding you back.
   d) You have removed a hare or rabbit from your hat.

5. "Whenever I speak to my friend Peter on the phone he rabbits on for ages. He ________.”
   a) talks so loudly
   b) has such a high-pitched voice
   c) never stops talking
   d) is very quiet

6. "I'm always smiling whatever happens. I guess I'm just a __________.”
   a) happy rabbit
   b) happy hare
   c) happy horse
   d) happy bunny
ANSWERS:

1. If you are like a rabbit in the headlights, you _________.
   a) enjoy being the centre of attention – Wrong. If you are like a rabbit in the headlights it means the opposite of enjoying being the centre of attention.
   b) are too scared to speak or move – Correct. This phrase means you are too scared to speak or move.
   c) are naturally strong at sports – This phrase has nothing to do with sports.
   d) have very large ears – Rabbits have large ears, but this phrase doesn't describe ears.

2. What do you call a baby rabbit in English?
   a) A kit – Correct. Baby rabbits are called kits.
   b) A kitten – A kitten is a baby cat.
   c) A pup – The word pup is short for puppy, which is a baby dog.
   d) A puppy – A puppy is a baby dog.

3. Rabbits that are kept as pets often live in a structure called a _________.
   a) hatch – A hatch is a kind of small door.
   b) box – This is not the name we give to what pet rabbits live in.
   c) hutch – Correct. A hutch is a home designed for pet rabbits.
   d) cart – A cart is a container pulled by farm animals or vehicles.

4. If you ‘pulled a rabbit from a hat’, what have you done?
   a) You have persuaded someone to do a worthwhile task – This is not what the phrase means.
   b) You have achieved or produced something difficult and unexpected – Well done. That's the correct meaning.
   c) You have removed an obstacle that was holding you back – This is not what the phrase means.
   d) You have removed a hare or rabbit from your hat – It could mean that, but this phrase also has a special meaning. Hint: if you pulled a rabbit from your hat, would people be surprised or not?
5. "Whenever I speak to my friend Peter on the phone he rabbits on for ages. He _________."
   a) talks so loudly – This is not what 'rabbit on' means.
   b) has such a high-pitched voice – This is not what 'rabbit on' means.
   c) never stops talking – Correct. To rabbit on means to speak endlessly.
   d) is very quiet – This is not what 'rabbit on' means.

6. "I'm always smiling whatever happens. I guess I'm just a __________."
   a) happy rabbit – This is not an idiomatic expression in English.
   b) happy hare – This is not an idiomatic expression in English.
   c) happy horse – This is not an idiomatic expression in English.
   d) happy bunny – Correct. If you are a happy bunny you are a happy, positive person.

You can try this quiz online at:
http://www.bbc.co.uk/apps/ifl/worldservice/quiznet/quizengine?ContentType=text/html;quiz=182_cny_rabbit