1. The small decorative objects used to fasten the end of sleeves are called __________.
   a) brooches
   b) cuff links
   c) bracelets
   d) handcuffs

2. Pants mean underwear in British English but refer to __________ in American English.
   a) shorts
   b) briefs
   c) tights
   d) trousers

3. A piece of woolly clothing which has buttons at the front and is usually worn on top of other clothes is called __________.
   a) a cardigan
   b) a blazer
   c) a jumper
   d) a sweater

4. __________ are clothes you wear when you are sleeping.
   a) Evening dresses
   b) Sleeping bags
   c) Pyjamas
   d) Cloaks

5. When I was a child I got £5 __________ money from my parents every week.
   a) stocking
   b) pocket
   c) jacket
   d) anorak

6. He works in a factory as a __________ worker.
   a) white-collar
   b) dark-collar
   c) blue-collar
   d) black-collar
ANSWERS:

1. The small decorative objects used to fasten the end of sleeves are called __________.
   a) brooches – This is not the correct answer. Brooches are fastened to the front of women's clothes. Try again.
   b) cuff links – Well done! This is the correct answer. Cuff links are used to fasten the shirt cuffs.
   c) bracelets – This is not the correct answer. A bracelet is a piece of jewellery worn around the wrists. Try again.
   d) handcuffs – This is not the correct answer. Handcuffs are used to lock prisoners' wrists. Try again.

2. Pants mean underwear in British English but refer to __________ in American English.
   a) shorts – This is not the correct answer. Shorts are shorter trousers. Try again.
   b) briefs – This is not the correct answer. Briefs are underwear. In American English pants do not mean underwear. Try again.
   c) tights – This is not the correct answer. Tights are not pants in American English. Try again.
   d) trousers – Well done! This is the correct answer. Pants mean trousers in American English.

3. A piece of woolly clothing which has buttons at the front and is usually worn on top of other clothes is called __________.
   a) a cardigan – Well done! This is the correct answer.
   b) a blazer – This is not the correct answer. A blazer is not made of woolly materials. Try again.
   c) a jumper – This is not the correct answer. A jumper doesn't have buttons at the front. Try again.
   d) a sweater – This is not the correct answer. In British English a sweater doesn't have buttons at the front. Try again.
4. ________ are clothes you wear when you are sleeping.
   a) Evening dress – This is not the correct answer. Evening dress refers to formal evening clothes for special events, such as a ceremony or a banquet. Try again.
   b) Sleeping bags – This is not the correct answer. A sleeping bag is a large bag in which you can sleep. Try again.
   c) Pyjamas – Well done! Pyjamas are clothing for wearing in bed.
   d) Cloaks – This is not the correct answer. A cloak is a piece of clothing without sleeves and is fastened at the neck. Try again.

5. When I was a child I got £5 ________ money from my parents every week.
   a) stocking – This is not the correct answer. Stocking money is not the right expression for a small amount of money in English. Try again.
   b) pocket – Well done! Pocket money means a small amount of money usually given by parents to kids.
   c) jacket – This is not the correct answer. Jacket money is not the right expression for a small amount of money in English. Try again.
   d) anorak – This is not the correct answer. Anorak money is not the right expression for a small amount of money in English. Try again.

6. He works in a factory as a ________ worker.
   a) white-collar – This is not the correct answer. White-collar workers refer to those who work in offices and don't have to work physically. Try again.
   b) dark-collar – This is not the correct answer. There is no such an expression as dark-collar worker in English. Try again.
   c) blue-collar – Well done! Blue-collar workers are those who work physically.
   d) black-collar – This is not the correct answer. There is no such an expression as black-collar worker in English. Try again.

You can try this quiz online at:
http://www.bbc.co.uk/apps/ff/worldservice/quiznet/quizengine?ContentType=text/html;quiz=1247_clothes