1. Which option is NOT CORRECT? "____________, I can't hear myself think!"
   a) Turn it down
   b) Turn the music down
   c) Turn down the music
   d) Turn down it

2. Which option is NOT CORRECT? "If you don't know what something means, use a dictionary to _____________."
   a) look the word up
   b) look up the word
   c) look it up
   d) look up it

3. "I'm so tired, I'm really _____________."
   a) looking forward the weekend to
   b) looking the weekend forward to
   c) looking forward to the weekend
   d) weekend looking forward to

4. When we go on holiday, who's going to ___________ the dog?"
   a) look for
   b) look after
   c) look up
   d) look at

5. "It takes about two hours, so we should ________ at about six o'clock"
   a) get it in
   b) get in it
   c) get in
   d) get on

6. Which option is NOT CORRECT? "I'll have to _____________, it's killing me!"
   a) give up it
   b) give it up
   c) give up smoking
   d) give smoking up
ANSWERS:

1. Which option is NOT CORRECT? "____________, I can't hear myself think!"
   a) Turn it down – If the 2 parts of the verb can be separated, and you use a pronoun - you MUST separate the verb.
   b) Turn the music down – With some multi-word verbs you can choose to separate the 2 parts - check this in your dictionary when you look up a new verb.
   c) Turn down the music – With some multi-word verbs you can choose to separate the 2 parts. If you use a noun, you don't have to separate the 2 parts of the verb.
   d) Turn down it – If the 2 parts of the verb can be separated, and you use a pronoun - you MUST separate the verb.

2. Which option is NOT CORRECT? "If you don't know what something means, use a dictionary to ___________."
   a) look the word up – With some multi-word verbs you can choose to separate the 2 parts - check this in your dictionary when you look up a new verb.
   b) look up the word – With some multi-word verbs you can choose to separate the 2 parts. If you use a noun, you don't have to separate the 2 parts of the verb.
   c) look it up – If the 2 parts of the verb can be separated, and you use a pronoun - you MUST separate the verb.
   d) look up it – If the 2 parts of the verb can be separated, and you use a pronoun - you MUST separate the verb.

3. "I'm so tired, I'm really ___________."
   a) looking forward the weekend to – With multi-word parts with 3 parts you cannot separate any part - the noun object must therefore go at the end of the verb.
   b) looking the weekend forward to – With multi-word parts with 3 parts you cannot separate any part - the noun object must therefore go at the end of the verb.
   c) looking forward to the weekend – With multi-word parts with 3 parts you cannot separate any part - the noun object must therefore go at the end of the verb.
   d) weekend looking forward to – With multi-word parts with 3 parts you cannot separate any part - the noun object must therefore go at the end of the verb.

4. When we go on holiday, who's going to ___________ the dog?"
   a) look for – 'Look for' means to search for something.
   b) look after – 'Look after' means to take care of something.
   c) look up – You can 'look up' a word in a dictionary.
   d) look at – 'Look at' means to watch or stare.

5. "It takes about 2 hours, so we should _______ at about six o'clock"
   a) get it in – The verb 'get in' meaning 'to arrive' does not have an object.
   b) get in it – The verb 'get in' meaning 'to arrive' does not have an object.
   c) get in – The verb 'get in' means 'to arrive', often after a train or plane journey.
   d) get on – This is not the correct answer.
6. Which option is NOT CORRECT? "I'll have to ____________, it's killing me!"

a) give up it – If the 2 parts of the verb can be separated, and you use a pronoun - you MUST separate the verb.
b) give it up – If the 2 parts of the verb can be separated, and you use a pronoun - you MUST separate the verb.
c) give up smoking – With some multi-word verbs you can choose to separate the 2 parts. If you use a noun, you don't have to separate the 2 parts of the verb.
d) give smoking up – With some multi-word verbs you can choose to separate the 2 parts - check this in your dictionary when you look up a new verb.

You can try this quiz online at: http://bbc.in/HKrE8G